Inglewood Boxing Card for Friday

The recently incorporated Inglewood Athletic Club will hold its big opening event Friday night at 122 Industrial avenue. A. W. Shaw, president of the organization, announces:

In addition to fights by a dozen well known boxers, a concert before the bouts begin, and music between fights by the Martin Wallace orchestra, relayed from broadcasting station KMIC through a loud speaker, and the putting of the main event on the radio blow by blow will be features of the opening. Mr. Shaw says:

The following fights have been arranged:
Main event, eight rounds, 140 pounds—Bobby La Salle vs. Arizona Joe Rivers (Gregory Rivers).
Semi-windup, six rounds, 155 pounds—Eddie Gill vs. Fred Lugo.
Special event, four rounds, 120 pounds—Golden Hess vs. Herbert Turchi.
Third preliminary, four rounds, 130 pounds—Bert Cleavens vs. Dick McDaniels.
Second preliminary, four rounds, 128 pounds—Barney Danielson vs. Jack Highley.
Curtain-raiser, four rounds, 120 pounds—Jack Stevens vs. Johnny Aguilarr.

Mrs. Carrie Perry of Hillsdale, Mich., has returned from a visit in Riverside and is a house guest of Mrs. O. C. Bath of Gramercy avenue.

Open Wholesale Cash and Carry Grocery in City

Charles Inman Heads Daley Organization Store in Torrance

The man who opened the first serve-self grocery in Torrance this week opened the first cash and carry wholesale grocery in this city—Charles Inman of Daley's, Inc. This city's pioneer wholesale business is located at Carson street and Gramercy avenue, under the name of the Economy Wholesale Grocers, a subsidiary of the Daley organization. Mr. Inman is manager.

Groceries and tobaccos are for sale by wholesale only, and sales will be made only to firms or individuals who sell foodstuffs, either raw or cooked. No sales will be made to individuals for home use. The store is already serving grocers and cafe owners throughout the district, according to Mr. Inman, who is enthusiastic over the volume of business already done. Daley's, Inc., has leased a second store in Torrance at Cota avenue and Redondo boulevard and will open for business as soon as the building now under construction is completed.

C.-C.M.O. Ball Team Will Open Season Here Next Sunday

The Chanslor-Cahfield Midway Oil Company ball team will open the season at 2:30 Sunday afternoon at C.-C. M. O. park on Redondo boulevard with a game against the Fraternal Brotherhood nine of Los Angeles.

Roy Messalt, manager of the team, has had the park reconditioned and it is in fine shape for the game.

In the opener Lefty Hatfield, formerly of the Seattle Indians, will pitch, and Bill Goodman, from the Utah League, will catch.

COURT NOTES

Adam Melkens, charged with a violation of the Wright act, was fined $90 or 90 days, $65 of which was suspended for a period of six months.

S. Barajas, charged by Deputy Taylor with pouring oil on the Gaffey street highway, paid a fine of $10.

Merchants Will Play Ball Sunday
